

Count down is on for Medicine Hat's

Medicine Hat explodes with live music January 26 - 31, 2015!

Saturday Jan 31 - Evening Closing Concert @ Medalta

Birds of Chicago

"This year's biggest roots surprise" says L.A. Times, is a collective built around husband and wife duo JT Nero (Chicago, IL) and Allison Russell (Montreal, QC). Since forming in 2012, they've toured internationally 10+ months of the year.

Their brand of rock and roll poetry can be a little hard to categorize, for people that insist on categorizing... their voices are undoubtedly the centerpiece - Nero's fractured country soul croon is wrapped in Russell's silver and gold tones for a harmony blend that is like nothing else in music today. Fired by the band it's a full tilt revival - streamlined poems, deep grooves, sharp hooks and joyful singing straight from the gut.

Morgan Davis

Juno Award Winner for Blues Album of the Year!
Winner of 4 Maple Blues Awards! to name a few of Morgan's accomplishments.

For nearly four decades Morgan Davis has been on the road travelling across Canada, the United States and Europe. His performances draw from a rich tradition of country blues, as well as his own contemporary songs infused with wit and a large dose of humour.

Don't miss his History of the Blues workshop on the Saturday Side Stages

Blackberry Wood

A wonderful, secret and magic combination of alt-country-gypsy-circus music. They're a high-energy circus cabaret spin on dreamy old musical styles mixed with big bouncy modern flavours like jumpin' ska, gypsy punk, hipster indie Rock, hip-hop, electro-swing 'n many other irresistible body shakin', foot stompin' sounds. Blackberry Wood comes down the road like a travelling caravan, with all kinds of fantastically costumed characters. They kick up dust all the time in towns all over Western Canada, the United Kingdom and parts of the United States. Whoooooopa!!!

Morgan Davis History of The Blues Workshop

Using music from his personal collection, interspersed with commentary and anecdotes along with audience participation, he takes folks on a journey spanning two continents and 80 years of recorded Blues. From African music to the "field hollers" of the southern U.S., from Mississippi to Chicago... from Georgia to Texas, Morgan illustrates regional styles as well as influences and interpretations from one artist to another, often using recorded snippets along with his own guitar.

This workshop will be held during the Saturday Afternoon Side Stages - included with afternoon admission
